

RELEASE and CERTIFICATIONS FOR RESIDENTS

Use of the Lorain County Collection Center requires you to agree to specific certifications and a release before unloading.

Release of Liability for Use of the Collection Center

For and in consideration of the privilege and service of dropping off materials at the Lorain County Solid Waste Management District Collection Center, I hereby release, indemnify, discharge and hold harmless Lorain County Solid Waste Management District, the Lorain County Government, and its respective officers, directors, employees and agents from any and all liability, whatsoever, that may arise from injury, damage, or loss which I, or my executors, heirs, next of kin, successors, and assigns may incur related to use of the Lorain County Solid Waste Management District Collection Center.

Household Hazardous Waste Certification

I certify that any household hazardous waste I have brought to the Lorain County Solid Waste Management District Collection Center is from a household (single or multifamily) and was used for residential purposes. The hazardous waste was not used for a commercial or industrial purpose and is not from a government facility, medical office or facility, church, non-profit organization, school, church or farm.

Personally Identifiable Information Certification and Release

I hereby release, indemnify, discharge and hold harmless Lorain County Solid Waste Management District, the Lorain County Government, and its respective officers, directors, employees and agents from any and all liability that may arise from the inadvertent disclosure of any and all personally identifiable information (PII) that has not been removed or redacted from the materials being dropped off at the Lorain County Solid Waste Management District Collection Center.

For more information about the Lorain County Solid Waste Mgmt. District and its programs –
Please call (440) 329-5440 or visit www.loraincounty.us/solidwaste