

The Lorain County Commissioners are accepting applications for the position of 911 Emergency Communications Dispatcher.

The successful candidate will receive emergency 911 calls, operate and control radio and computer equipment and dispatch public safety agencies.

Applicants must be able to handle fast paced, high stress situations and be able to demonstrate multi-tasking abilities, customer service skills and excellent communications skills.

Applicants must have a flexible schedule and be willing to work irregular hours that include both afternoon shifts, midnight shifts and weekends and holidays.

High School diploma or equivalency required.

Training provided. This position requires being reliable and dependable.

Interested applicants can apply online at:

Applications are available at the Lorain County Administration Building located at 226 Middle Avenue Elyria, Ohio – 4th Floor – Human Resources Department

Apply online at www.loraincounty.us

Lorain County is an Equal Opportunity Employer and will make reasonable accommodations for qualified applicants with disabilities