

RELEASE and CERTIFICATIONS FOR BUSINESSES

Use of the Lorain County Collection Center requires you to agree to certain certifications and a release before unloading.

Release of Liability for Use of the Collection Center

For and in consideration of the privilege and service of dropping off materials at the Lorain County Solid Waste Management District Collection Center, on behalf of the business I am representing, the business hereby releases, indemnifies, discharges and holds harmless Lorain County Solid Waste Management District, the Lorain County Government, and its respective officers, directors, employees, contractors, vendors and agents from any and all liability, whatsoever, that may arise from injury, damage, or loss which I, my business, and any of its employees, assigns, or predecessors incur related to use of the Lorain County Solid Waste Management District Collection Center.

Hazardous Waste Certification

I certify that none of the materials being dropped off at the Lorain County Solid Waste Management District Collection Center contain any hazardous waste or scrap tires.

Personally Identifiable Information Certification and Release

On behalf of the business I represent, the business hereby releases, indemnifies, discharges and holds harmless Lorain County Solid Waste Management District, the Lorain County Government, and its respective officers, directors, employees, contractors, vendors and agents from any and all liability that may arise from the inadvertent disclosure of any and all personally identifiable information (PII) that has not been removed or redacted from the materials being dropped off at the Lorain County Solid Waste Management District Collection Center or from documents scanned during the process of dropping off materials.

For more information about the Lorain County Solid Waste Mgmt. District and its programs – please call (440) 329-5440 or visit www.loraincounty.us/solidwaste